About Uttarakhand Char Dham Yatra

The Uttarakhand Char Dham Yatra is a revered pilgrimage journey in India that takes devotees to four sacred Hindu shrines nestled in the Garhwal Himalayas of Uttarakhand. These four holy sites are:

1. Yamunotri – Dedicated to Goddess Yamuna, this temple is the first stop in the Char Dham circuit. Pilgrims visit the sacred Yamuna River's origin and seek blessings for a safe journey.
2. Gangotri – This shrine is dedicated to Goddess Ganga and marks the origin of the holy River Ganges. It is believed that taking a dip in the river here cleanses one's sins.
3. Kedarnath – Dedicated to Lord Shiva, this temple is one of the twelve Jyotirlingas and holds immense spiritual significance. The temple is surrounded by majestic snow-clad peaks.
4. Badrinath – Dedicated to Lord Vishnu, Badrinath is the final stop in the Char Dham Yatra. The temple is situated between the Nar and Narayan mountain ranges and is believed to be the site where Lord Vishnu meditated.

Best Time to Visit

The Char Dham Yatra typically opens in April/May and closes by October/November due to extreme weather conditions in winter. The best time to visit is between May to June and September to October when the weather is pleasant.
